

Help shape the next generation of energy market intelligence.

Better market intelligence. Better decisions. Better outcomes.

Energy Price Intelligence (EPI) delivers clear, independent and actionable insight across wholesale energy markets.

As the service continues to evolve, I'm inviting a select group of organisations to become Founding Partners — working with me to ensure the service develops around the real needs of procurement teams, brokers, advisors and commercial leaders.

Your insight now will help shape the products, tools and content that deliver even greater value in months and years ahead.

LIMITED TO THE FIRST 10 ORGANISATIONS

Be part of a select group helping to shape the future of energy market intelligence.

Influence the roadmap. Request features. Ensure the service evolves around your needs.

WHAT FOUNDING PARTNERS RECEIVE

SHAPE THE PRODUCT

Provide input and feedback to directly influence the development roadmap and future features.

DIRECT ACCESS
